Enabling all to flourish: Rooted in God's love

Our mission, vision and values

The Trust has a clear mission at its core, ensuring that all pupils are enabled to flourish, rooted in God's Love - academically, socially, spiritually, physically and mentally.

We have a clear vision about creating successful schools for the benefit of their communities. We expect any academy in the Trust to continuously improve. All academies provide rich and diverse curriculums which evolve to meet the needs of their children and local communities, as well as delivering educational excellence to enable them to flourish in later life.

The way we work and deliver against our mission is critical to our Trust. We have shared, agreed values of Hope; Nurture; Equality; Respect; Collaboration.

The Trust's vision is underpinned by a Christian values framework which is adopted by all Academies. It provides clear expectations for all DSAMAT employees on how the Trust wishes its values to impact on all areas of academy life. This draws on, and is informed by, the National Church of England Vision for Education and the Diocesan Board of Education Vision.

Our community

The Trust is dedicated to delivering education that serves local communities. Our academies are inclusive, welcoming those from all and no faiths, from all abilities and backgrounds. We believe in providing a high-quality education, underpinned by Christian values, which enables every child to flourish.

Underpinning all of the Trust's work is a belief in educational excellence. The Trust serves all stakeholders by providing academies with the highest levels of academic rigour and pastoral care. Our academies are places where children and young people develop and thrive intellectually, socially, culturally and spiritually. All of the Trust's schools teach a broad and balanced curriculum within national guidelines focusing on core skills. This is designed to ensure that all pupils reach their academic potential and seek to enrich their experience along the way. Pupils will be enabled to succeed in an atmosphere of high expectation, aspiring to educational excellence with a firm foundation of values.

This policy forms part of our Trust governance and ensures that we are held to the highest standards as we carry out our duties.

Statement of Intent

The Diocese of St Albans Multi Academy Trust (DSAMAT) is committed to open and honest communication and ensuring the highest possible standards in integrity – we will always treat whistleblowing as a serious matter.

In line with the Trusts commitment to openness, probity and accountability, all members of staff are encouraged to report concerns. This policy will work to ensure that, if an employee sees or suspects that something is wrong, they will raise this with the Trust. This is known as “whistle blowing” – a phrase that is used throughout this policy and should be viewed as a positive action of speaking up.

This policy seeks to ensure that any person suspecting malpractice knows how to raise concerns and what procedures are in place to deal with the concern.

This policy will be implemented and adhered to from the first day of any other academy joining the Trust. This policy should be read in conjunction with the DSAMAT Data Protection Policy.

1. Purpose

- 1.1. To set out DSAMAT's policy and procedure for dealing with concerns raised by employees which relate to suspected wrongdoing or dangers at work (see paragraph 3). Allegations of child abuse against teachers and other staff and volunteers is to be dealt with in accordance with Keeping Children Safe in Education statutory guidance for schools and colleges.

2. Background

- 2.1. As employees are often the first to realise that there may be something wrong within the school, it is important that they feel able to express their concerns without fear of harassment or victimisation. Otherwise, they may find it easier to ignore the concern rather than report it. The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 recognises this fact and is designed to protect employees, who make certain disclosures of information in 'the public interest', from detriment and/or dismissal. This policy builds on the provisions of the Act.
- 2.2. The Trust Board is committed to the highest possible standard of operation, probity and accountability. In line with that commitment, employees, officers, consultants, contractors, volunteers, casual workers and agency workers with serious concerns are encouraged to come forward and voice those concerns. This policy document makes it clear that employees can do so without fear of reprisals; it is intended to encourage and enable employees to raise serious concerns within the school rather than overlooking a problem or alerting anyone external to the school.
- 2.3. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment, and it may be amended at any time.

3. Aims of the Policy

- 3.1. This policy aims to:
 - provide avenues for employees to raise concerns internally as a matter of course, and receive feedback on any action taken
 - provide for matters to be dealt with quickly and appropriately, and ensure that concerns are taken seriously and treated consistently and fairly
 - reassure employees that they will be protected from reprisals or victimisation for whistleblowing where they have a genuine concern
 - allow employees to take the matter further if they are dissatisfied with the Trust Board's response.

- 3.2. A whistleblower is a person who raises a genuine concern relating to the matters below. If employees have any genuine concerns related to suspected wrongdoing or danger affecting any of our activities (a whistleblowing concern) they should report it under this policy. Whistleblowing is the disclosure of information which relates to suspected wrongdoing or dangers at work. This may include:
- criminal activity
 - miscarriages of justice
 - danger to health and safety
 - damage to the environment
 - failure to comply with any legal or professional obligation or regulatory requirements
 - bribery
 - financial fraud or mismanagement
 - negligence
 - breach of our internal policies and procedures
 - conduct likely to damage our reputation
 - unauthorised disclosure of confidential information
 - public examination fraud
 - the deliberate concealment of any of the above matters.
- 3.3. Before initiating the procedure, employees should consider the following:
- the responsibility for expressing concerns about unacceptable practice or behaviour rests with all employees
 - employees should use line manager or team meetings and other opportunities to raise questions and seek clarification on issues which are of day-to-day concern
 - whilst it can be difficult to raise concerns about the practice or behaviour of a colleague, employees must act to prevent an escalation of the problem and to prevent themselves being potentially implicated.
- 3.4. This policy should not be used for complaints about an employee's personal circumstances, such as the way they have been treated at work. In these cases, an employee should use the Trust's Grievance Procedure (or anti-harassment and bullying policy as appropriate); if the matter relates to salary, the salary review procedures documented in the Trust's pay policy.

4. Safeguards

4.1. Harassment or Victimisation

- 4.1.1. The Trust Board recognises that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make, not least because of the fear of reprisal from those responsible for the malpractice. The Trust Board will not tolerate harassment or victimisation and will take action to protect employees when they have a genuine concern.

- 4.1.2. This does not mean that if an employee is already the subject of internal procedures such as disciplinary or redundancy, that those procedures will necessarily be halted as a result of that employee raising a concern under the whistleblowing policy.

4.2. Confidentiality

- 4.2.1. We hope that employees will feel able to voice whistleblowing concerns openly under this policy. The Trust Board will make every effort to protect an employee's identity if confidentiality is requested.
- 4.2.2. As indicated above, identity will be protected as far as possible but should the investigation into the concern require the employee to be named as the source of the information, that this will be discussed with the employee before their name is disclosed.

4.3. Anonymous Allegations

- 4.3.1. Employees are encouraged to put their name to an allegation. Proper investigation may be more difficult or impossible if we cannot obtain further information and it is also more difficult to establish whether allegations are credible. Anonymous allegations will be considered at the discretion of the Trust Board. In exercising the discretion, the factors to be taken into account would include:
- the seriousness of the issues raised
 - the credibility of the concern
 - the likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

4.4. False Allegations

- 4.4.1. If an employee makes an allegation where they have a genuine concern, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against that employee. If, however, we conclude that an employee has made malicious or vexatious allegations, or with a view to personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken against that employee.

4.5. Unfounded Allegations

- 4.5.1. Following investigation, allegations may be confirmed as unfounded. This outcome will be notified to the employee who raised the concern, who will be informed that the Trust Board deems the matter to be concluded and that it should not be raised again unless new evidence becomes available.

4.6. Support to Employees

- 4.6.1. It is recognised that raising concerns can be difficult and stressful. Advice and support will be made available, as appropriate to both the employee/s raising the concerns and any employee/s subject to investigation.

5. How to raise a Concern

- 5.1. As a first step, an employee should normally raise concerns with their immediate manager or their manager's superior. This depends, however, on the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues and who is involved. For example, if an employee believes that their immediate manager or their manager's superior is involved, they should approach the Headteacher, the CEO or Chair of the Trust Board. The dedicated email address of Whistleblowing@stalbandsmat.co.uk can also be used and the concern would be passed to the appropriate person to manage. An employee (including the Headteacher and members of the leadership team) can by-pass the direct management line and the Trust Board if they feel the overall management and Board of a Trust is engaged in an improper course of action. In this case, please refer to section 7 below.
- 5.2. Concerns are better raised in writing. The employee should set out the background and history of the concerns, giving names, dates, and places where possible, and the reasons why they are particularly concerned about the situation. If an employee does not feel able to put the concern in writing, they should telephone or meet the appropriate person. It is important that however, the concern is raised, the employee makes it clear that they are raising the issue via the whistle-blowing procedure.
- 5.3. The earlier an employee expresses the concern, the easier it is to take action.
- 5.4. Although an employee is not expected to prove the truth of an allegation, they will need to demonstrate to the person contacted that there are sufficient grounds for the concern.
- 5.5. In some instances, it may be appropriate for an employee to ask the trade union to raise a matter on the employee's behalf.
- 5.6. At each meeting under this policy, the employee may bring a colleague or trade union representative. The companion must respect the confidentiality of the disclosure and any subsequent investigation.

6. The Role of Senior Managers

- 6.1. A Senior Manager may be informed by an employee about concern/s and that they are "blowing the whistle" within the procedure in person, or in writing or over the phone.
- 6.2. The Senior Manager should respond immediately by arranging to meet with the employee to discuss the concern/s as soon as possible.
- 6.3. Stage One:
 - 6.3.1. At the initial meeting the Senior Manager should establish that:
 - there is genuine cause and sufficient grounds for the concern; and
 - the concern has been appropriately raised via the Whistle-blowing Policy.

- 6.3.2. The Senior Manager should ask the employee, to put their concern/s in writing, if they have not already done so. If the employee is unable to do this the senior manager will take down a written summary of their concern/s and provide them with a copy after the meeting. The Senior Manager should make notes of the discussions with the employee. The employee's letter and/or senior manager's notes should make it clear that the employee is raising the issue via the whistle-blowing procedure and provide:
- the background and history of the concerns; and
 - names, dates and places (where possible); and
 - the reasons why the employee is particularly concerned about the situation.
- 6.3.3. The employee should be asked to date and sign their letter and/or the notes of any discussion. The Senior Manager should positively encourage the employee to do this, as a concern expressed anonymously is much less powerful and much more difficult to address, especially if the letter/notes become evidence in other proceedings, e.g., an internal disciplinary hearing.
- 6.3.4. The Senior Manager should follow the policy as set out above and in particular explain to the employee:
- who they will need to speak to in order to determine the next steps (e.g., Headteacher).
 - what steps they intend to take to address the concern.
 - how they will communicate with the employee during and at the end of the process. It should be noted that the need for confidentiality may prevent the school giving the employee specific details of any necessary investigation or any necessary disciplinary action taken as a result.
 - that the employee will receive a written response within ten working days
 - that their identity will be protected as far as possible but should the investigation into the concern require the employee to be named as the source of the information, that this will be discussed with the employee before their name is disclosed.
 - that the Trust Board will do all that it can to protect the employee from discrimination and/or victimisation.
 - that the matter will be taken seriously and investigated immediately.
 - that if the employee's concern, though raised as a genuine concern, is not confirmed by the investigation, no punitive action will be taken against them.
 - if clear evidence is uncovered during the investigation that they have made a malicious or vexatious allegation, disciplinary action may be taken against them.
 - the investigation may confirm their allegations to be unfounded in which case the Trust Board will deem the matter to be concluded unless new evidence becomes available.

6.4. Stage Two:

- 6.4.1. Following the initial meeting with the employee, the Senior Manager should consult with the Headteacher, the CEO or Chair of the Trust Board to determine whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form it should take. A record should be made of the decisions and/or agreed actions.
- 6.4.2. It may be necessary, with anonymous allegations, to consider whether it is possible to take any further action. When making this decision, Senior Managers should take the following factors into account:
- the seriousness of the issue/s raised
 - the credibility of the concern/s
 - the likelihood of confirming the allegation/s from attributable sources.
- 6.4.3. In some cases, it may be possible to resolve the concern/s simply, by agreed action or an explanation regarding the concern/s, without the need for further investigation. However, depending on the nature of the concern/s it may be necessary for the concern/s to:
- be investigated internally
 - be referred to the police
 - be referred to the external auditor
 - form the subject of an independent inquiry.
- 6.4.4. Senior Managers should have a working knowledge and understanding of other school policies and procedures, e.g., grievance, disciplinary, harassment, child protection procedures, to ensure that concerns raised by employees are addressed via the appropriate procedure/process.

6.5. Stage Three:

- 6.5.1. Within ten working days of a concern being received, the manager receiving the concern (at paragraph 5.1 above) must write to the employee:
- acknowledging that the concern has been received
 - indicating how they propose to deal with the matter
 - giving an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response
 - telling the employee whether any initial enquiries have been made
 - telling the employee whether further investigations will take place, and if not, why not
 - letting the employee know when they will receive further details if the situation is not yet resolved.

7. Raising Concerns Outside the School

7.1. The aim of this policy is to provide an internal mechanism for reporting, investigation and remedying any wrongdoing in the workplace. In most cases, the employee should not find it necessary to alert anyone externally. The law recognises that in some circumstances it may be appropriate for the employee to report their concerns to an external body such as a regulator. It will very rarely if ever be appropriate to alert the media. Employees are strongly encouraged to seek advice before reporting a concern to anyone external. If an employee is not satisfied with the Trust Board's response, the manager should ensure that they are made aware with whom they may raise the matter externally:

- 'Protect' 0203 117 2520 *
- Recognised Trade Union
- Senior LA Officer
- External Auditor
- Relevant professional bodies or regulatory organisations
- Solicitor.

7.2. The manager should stress to the employee that if they choose to take a concern outside the school, it is the employee's responsibility to ensure that confidential information is not disclosed, i.e., confidential information, in whatever format, is not handed over to a third party.

*Protect is a registered charity that employees can contact for advice to assist them in raising concerns about poor practice at work. The charity also provides advice to employers as to the possible ways to address these concerns.

7.3. Concerns about safeguarding practices can be raised externally using the NSPCC whistleblowing helpline. Employees can call 0800 028 0285 or email help@nspcc.org.uk.

8. Monitoring and Review

8.1. The Headteacher will be responsible for monitoring the implementation and effectiveness of this policy/procedure. The policy/procedure will be reviewed by the Trust Board as necessary.
