

Online safety

Online at home

Here are some questions to answer with your family at home, to help you think about going online and what you can do together to make sure you stay safe.

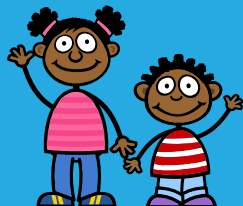

Some questions are for children, some for adults and some for the whole family.

What are your favourite things to do online?

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Talking | <input type="checkbox"/> Finding out about things |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Playing games | <input type="checkbox"/> Watching films and TV |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Something else | |

What do you use to get online?

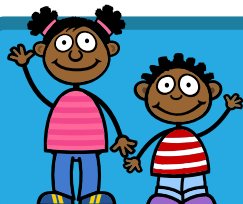

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Tablet | <input type="checkbox"/> Phone |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Computer | <input type="checkbox"/> Game console |

Do you ever go online alone?

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Always | <input type="checkbox"/> Sometimes | <input type="checkbox"/> Never |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------|

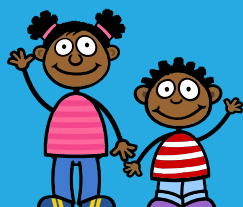

How much time do you spend online every day?

Weekdays:

Weekends:

How do you know if a game or film is OK for you?

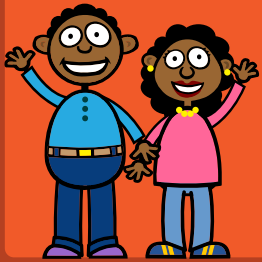

Online safety

Online at home

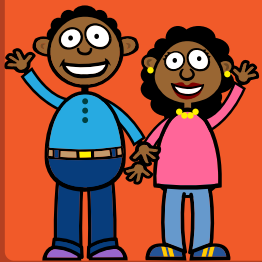

How do you know if a website is safe to visit?

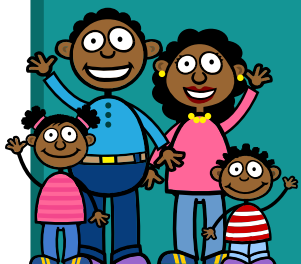

How do you know what pages your child visits online?

How can you make sure that they are safe?

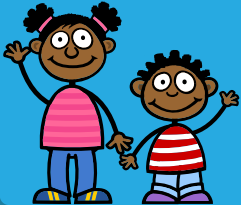

How can you check if a film or a game is appropriate?

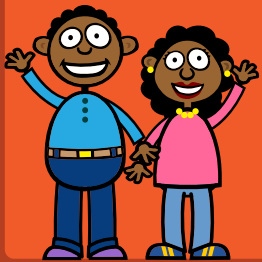

Online safety

Online at home

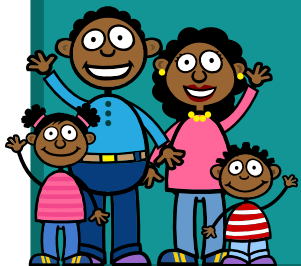

What would you do if something online makes you feel funny or bad?

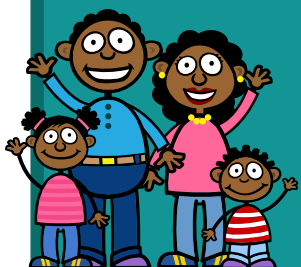

How do you know who your child talks to online?

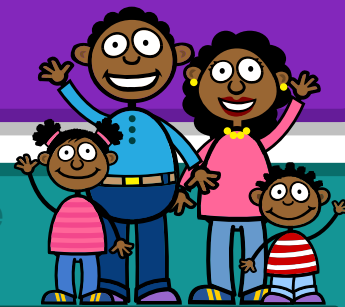

Give some examples of information you should never tell anyone online:

Why should you always think before you share photos or videos online?

Online safety

What are your top tips for having fun and staying safe online?

Online safety: top tips